InterContinental Hanoi Westlake
Destination
DESTINATION

A main cultural centre of the country, Hanoi has been the capital of Vietnam for almost a thousand years and maintains its position as the country’s second largest city. Meaning ‘Between Rivers’ or ‘River Interior’, Hanoi is dense with lakes and offers a magnificent blend of traditional Sino-Vietnamese style and French flair.

Hanoian summers, from May to September, are generally warm and humid, while winters, from November to March, can be particularly cold and dry. October is the best time of year to visit this charming and elegant city.

Whether you prefer museums and temples or parks and lakes, Hanoi’s vast collection of historical and cultural sites ensures that you will find something to pique your interest.

The Hotel

The InterContinental Hanoi Westlake is superbly situated on the serene waters of Westlake, the largest lake in the city and adjacent to the famous 800-year-old Golden Lotus Pagoda.

The hotel has 293 stylish guest rooms & suites which are spacious and luxury (from 43m²) with private balcony. Pavilion Rooms located over the lake offer unique experiences for memorable incentive stays. Conveniently located just minutes from the old quarter, yet being able to offer an excellent retreat from the hustle of downtown Hanoi.

Located in a dedicated building, the hotel’s meeting spaces provide a perfect setting for every occasion. The spectacular Sunset Bar over the lake is ideal for group welcome reception and standing cocktail events. Three stylish restaurants with a wide range of local & international cuisine.
